SOME DEATHS.

R. P. Dillard, a well known citizen of Essex county, died a few days ago at his home at Centre Cross, after a lingering illness of paralysis, aged fifty-five years. A wife, three sons and one daughter survive him.

Mrs. Walker Mothershead died Sunday morning, September 16th, at her home near Lyells after a lingering illness from consumption. Dr. G. W. Beale conducted the funeral services Monday in Beulah church and interment took place in the cemetery.

On Sunday last Miss Peechie Foster, of Bertrand, who has been confined to the house and bed for some time with consumption, died. She leaves to mourn her death mother, father, three sisters and four brothers, besides other relatives. She was beloved by everybody who knew her.

Mr. W. W. Stiff, a prominent and successful merchant of Oak Grove, Westmoreland county, passed away Saturday morning at his home, after a long illness, in the 75th year of his age. Mr. Stiff was a consistent member and steward for the past 40 years of Grace Methodist church. He is survived by three sons-Dr. J. P. Stiff, of Fredericksburg; Dr. F. W. Stiff, of Richmond, and W. B. Stiff, of Westmoreland county-two daughters-Miss Kate M. Stiff, of Westmoreland, and Mrs. C. R. Minear, of West Virginia. Funeral from his late home Monday evening. Interment in Oak Grove cemetery.

Capt. Robt. L. Bull, formerly of Accomac county, but for the past ten years of Whealton, died on Thursday, September 6th, at an advanced age. He is survived by wife, four sons and one daughter. Interment took place at Whealton cemetery, Mr. Bull was a consistent member of the Methodist church, and one of his favorite testinonies in class meetings was to compare his life with a ship upon the high seas, and is as follows: "Brothers, comparing this old soul of mine as a ship upon life's sea, it seems to me that sometimes my sails are full and that I am gliding on Heavenward at a rapid rate. But, ah, brothers, the adverse winds of temptation come and strike my sails and they all swing in-board, and if it wasn't for a look yonder at Cavalry's Cross I would not be able to keep the old vessel off. But when I see those pierced hands and feet and bleeding side again I am enabled to gain control of this old craft and by and by I will cast my anchor over yonder in the Haven of rest where I shall strike hands with the love ones gone on before."
